The International Master in Business Administration from the Eiffel School of Management (IAE Eiffel) is a two-year program entirely taught in English. It is a unique opportunity to study Management and learn French in Paris in an international and stimulating environment at a lesser cost.

The program offers more than 400 hours of classes per year in Management, Strategy, Economics, International and European Law and Finance taught by scholars, French and International Managers and experts.

It will lead students to:
- Broaden and deepen their general knowledge in Management and Finance
- Use their knowledge and adapt it with an ethical and intercultural approach
- Get some experience in major French or International Companies
- Join the network of the IAE France and IAE Eiffel Alumni.

Further studies
After the first year of International Master in Business Administration, students can choose to continue in the second year or apply to one of the 22 other specialized and highly selective Master 2 from the Eiffel School of Management (IAE Eiffel) provided they have a sufficient level in French (B2 minimum). They can also apply to the most selective Master 2 programs in France (HEC, ESSEC, Dauphine, CNAM) or overseas (UC Berkeley).

Career Opportunities
General or Project Management positions in French and International Companies, Institutions or Organizations leading to highly diversified careers in France, Europe or Overseas.
Environnement de recherche
More than an half of the Faculty are renowned researchers from our labs in Economics (ERUDITE) and Management (IRG). Students will have to do in the second year a thesis based on their 6 months internship and can choose an elective class Applied Research Methodology.

Stage / Alternance
In the First Year (Master 1) students can do an elective 3 months internship
In the Second Year (Master 2) students have to do a 6 months internship

Test
